Discussion List

We invite all feminists across Europe to begin the discussions which will shape the new feminist agenda. Find instructions and links here.

The EFF is off and running and now we need YOU ! We welcome all feminists to join the discussion on the Discussion List message board to participate in the debate. Let your voices be heard !

Simply register for an alias with your email address here. Then let other EFF participants know who you are by filling out your profile information and go for it !

To create a new topic, select a theme from the list and then click the envelope icon on the left. To respond to a topic, click on the title and then click on the pen logo on the bottom of the screen. Be sure to check in often to make sure your voice is heard in the discussion !

The message board is a democratic space for dialogue, discussion and debate. We only ask you to be respectful and patient as we will surely run into language barriers while communicating with feminists across Europe. We always encourage asking clarifying questions. So ask those provocative questions, present your point of view, declare your opinion on the most pressing issues we should be thinking about, and brainstorm strategies to effect change in Europe now ! We encourage and welcome all perspectives in shaping the new feminist agenda.
